Taking up half a day of your time, this tour promises to deliver the very best of Doha, Qatar's capital and a city that succeeds in blending modern with traditional architecture. After passing the Museum of Islamic Art near the city's dhow Harbour, a photo stop follows at the Corniche for views of the West Bay skyscrapers. Next up is a man-made island simply called The Pearl Qatar that resembles the shape of an oyster - albeit one measuring an impressive 988 acres. Due to be completed in 2018, The Pearl is set to provide more than 32 km/20 miles of new coastline, along which around 19,000 residential units will be built for about 45,000 residents. Your final port of call will then be the Souq Waqif, a vast inner-city bazaar that dates to the 19th-century but was fully refurbished using only traditional building materials between 2004 and 2006. Brimming with the most diverse goods, from gold and textiles to spices and live animals, the souq is an experience that will engage all your senses. The outing then wraps up with your return to the ship.
