

SHORE EXCURSIONS

FLORIDA

Trolley and Ernest Hemingway House

Difficulty Level: Moderate

Duration: 2 hours

You will be escorted from the ship to the waiting Conch Tour Trains and/or Old Town Trolleys, a walk of about 250 yards over flat, even terrain. Your guide will entertain and delight you with over 100 points of interest and colorful stories about the island's history and its charming characters. After your tour around the island, you will disembark at the Ernest Hemingway Home and Museum. From 1931 to 1961, Hemingway owned this Spanish Colonial style home, where he wrote some of his most famous works like "To Have and Have Not". Fishing, writing, and enjoying his friends, "Papa" Hemingway was one of the most famous residents whose presence and influence on the island continue to this day.

Please Note: Wheelchair bound guests who wish to participate should inform the Excursion Office prior. Hemingway Home is wheelchair accessible on the first floor only. A video of the second level can be viewed on the main floor.

Discover Key West

Difficulty Level: Moderate

Duration: 2 ½ hours

Please sit back, relax and discover Key West from the comfort of a World-Famous Conch Tour Train and/or Old Town Trolley. Your personal guide will delight and entertain you for the one-hour tour. You will hear stories and anecdotes about the pirates and ship wreckers, the Navy, and all the colorful characters that make up Key West's colorful history! Follow your tour by immersing yourself in the glories of the undersea world at the Key West Aquarium, with hundreds of different species of local marine life and a touch tank. Then go back over 100 years with a live show by local actors at the Shipwreck Treasure Museum and learn what made Key West the richest city in the United States.

Please Note: Wheelchair bound guests who wish to participate should inform the Excursion Office prior. Shipwreck Treasure Museum is wheelchair accessible on the first floor only. A video of the second level can be viewed on the main floor. Guests are at their leisure to visit the Aquarium and/or the Shipwreck Museum, (both unguided and showing the stubs of the excursion ticket). The museum offers a - short live show - which runs every 20 minutes. Guests will walk back to the ship at their leisure.
